Since 2012, the Hill Family has been creating a unique blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Syrah known for its punch and vigor. The Syrah and Cabernet Sauvignon lots are always a treat to blend, and eventually we find the place where this “Team of Rivals” fits together better than each could show separately. With its well-known color and density, and a year in the bottle, it will be ready to swoop down and amaze people. Landon is 14 now, and he likes to help in the vineyard, so we love to see Landon on the label representing the next generation.

Winemaker Kari Auringer’s tasting notes:

In many wine regions of the world, Syrah is considered a natural blending partner with Cabernet Sauvignon, and we couldn’t agree more. The blend changes a bit with every vintage, but 2023 gives us 46% Syrah, 45% Cabernet Sauvignon and 8% Malbec from our Atlas Peak vineyard. This gives us a layered and complex version of Like a Hawk, one that is bold and serious. With its well-known color and density and a year in the bottle, it will be ready to swoop down and amaze. As it is with many serious wines, a little time in the cellar will be rewarded.
